THE SHAMA'IL OF THE PROPHET

As Though We Beheld Him

"I looked at his face, and it was like a page of the Mushaf."

— Anas ibn Malik (ash-Shama'il 386)

This book gathers all six books of The Shama'il of the Prophet into one volume, following all 56 chapters of Imam at-Tirmidhi's ash-Shama'il al-Muhammadiyyah: his appearance, clothing, meals, smile and gentle humour, his worship and character, through to his final days and his legacy. Every hadith comes with its Arabic text, translation, chain and grade, while weak reports are explained in Note boxes. We never saw the Messenger of Allah, yet through the narrations of his Companions it is as though we behold him — so that we may know him, love him and follow him.

6 Parts • 56 Chapters • The grade of every narration
Verses of the Qur'an • Hadith with isnad • Charts and tables
