HEROES OF ISLAM • SERIES 29

Turgut Reis

"And never think of those who have been killed in the cause of Allah as dead. Rather, they are alive with their Lord, receiving provision."

— Surah Ali 'Imran 3:169

A farmer's son from the Aegean coast who became a pupil of Hayreddin Barbarossa, was once chained as a galley slave on a Genoese ship, freed Tripoli in 1551, governed it for nine years, and fell as a martyr at Malta at about eighty years of age. This book also tells honestly of the capture of the people of Gozo, the tower of bones at Djerba and famous stories that are not established; every lesson rests on the Qur'an and authentic Hadith.
